debtedness in San Francisco is not supposed to be very great.

King is reported to be the owner of a plantation at the Sandwich Islands, but under the circumstances it is doubtful if the place is tree of incombrance. It is also stated that the firm made some $40,000 last year in the cod-fishing business. However this may be they are now insolvent, and the prospect of their creditors reaping a dividend from the assets is by no means flattering.
